Helping people to care for our ocean

Effective fisheries regulations are based on sound scientific advice and ecological information to ensure long-term sustainable utilization of our fish resources.

As an angler you can help achieve long-term successful management of our marine resources by complying with the fishing regulations.

This document simplifies and summarises the regulations that apply to recreational line-fishing in South Africa's marine and estuarine environments.

The information provided here is not complete and may change periodically.

For full details of the Marine Living Resources Act (Act No. 18 of 1998) and regulations promulgated thereunder, please contact your local fishery officer or the Department of Forestry, Fisheries and Environment.

Special regulations may govern some estuaries, National Parks and Marine Protected Areas (MPAs). In such cases, please contact the relevant conservation authority.

General Regulations

- Every recreational angler must pay for the right to fish in marine waters by buying an annual (or temporary) recreational fishing permit. Different types of fishing permits are available including angling, spearfishing, boat skipper, etc. These permits are available from the Post Office.
- A recreational fishing permit entitles the holder to catch fish for own use only and not to sell or trade.
- The holder of a recreational angling permit is entitled to catch fish of the Class Pisces (i.e. bony fish, sharks, rays, skates and chimaeras) only with a rod, reel and line, to which no more than 10 hooks are attached.
- The holder of a recreational spearfishing permit is entitled to catch fish of the Class Pisces (i.e. bony fish, sharks, rays, skates and chimaeras) only with a speargun.
- The skipper of a vessel used for recreational fishing shall be in possession of a permit endorsed for recreational fishing from a vessel.
- The holder of a spearfishing permit shall not use any artificial respiratory equipment, except for a snorkel.
- The holder of a recreational fishing permit authorised to fish within a Marine Protected Area (MPA) must adhere to the conditions specific to that MPA.
- The holder of a recreational angling and/or spearfishing permit shall not catch or be in possession of:
 - a) Any fish listed as a Prohibited Species.
 - b) More than the daily bag limit listed for that species during any one day. Furthermore, there is an overall cumulative bag limit of ten (10) fish per person per day irrespective of the species caught, except that this does not apply to baitfish species where there is no bag limit or to species where the bag limit is greater than 10.

c) Any fish smaller than, or of a mass less than, the size limit listed for that species.

d) Any fish during the closed season listed for that species.

- The holder of a recreational spearfishing permit shall not catch or attempt to catch fish in an estuary.
- All fish that are landed, except sharks, skates, rays and chimaeras, must have head and tail intact so that it can be established whether the fish conforms to the minimum size and/or mass, provided that it may be gutted.
- Any fish caught in contravention of the provisions of the Act or the permit conditions must immediately be returned to the sea with as little injury as possible.

Recreational species may not be sold by anyone. Commercial species may only be sold by permitted rights holders.

For species not listed here or on the Prohibited Species List, a daily bag limit of 10 shall apply, provided that all sharks and rays (Class Chondrichthyes) have a bag limit of one and rockcods (Family Serranidae) have a bag limit of five.

Special note should be taken of the size, bag and area limitations with regard to kob (Argyrosomus spp.)
